Section 3

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS OF EXHIBITION AND SANCTIONING

3.1. Organizations or individuals planning to sponsor or stage a club calf show and wishing it to be sanctioned by the OCCA, must obtain the prior approval of the OCCA if the results of such events are to be entered into the OCCA's records and points awarded to the exhibitors. Approval does not carry over from year to year, but must be obtained for each individual show or event. The following documents must be signed and returned to the OCCA at least thirty days prior to the approved event: an OCCA show contract; an OCCA sanctioning form; a complete list of individual show rules; and a copy of the show bill.

3.2. Show results and sanctioning fee must be turned into the OCCA Sanctioning Manager within ten days of the show.

3.3. The OCCA reserves the right to set up a booth at all sanctioned shows at no additional charge to the OCCA or its members. This booth shall be used to sell OCCA merchandise, enroll members, and distribute literature and publications.

3.4. If premium money is to be paid to exhibitors it must be paid on the day of the show. Exception will be made for the following shows: Oklahoma State Fair; Tulsa State Fair and the Oklahoma Youth Expo.

3.5. When promoting or advertising an OCCA sanctioned show, the show sponsors or officials must publicize, prior to the event, how much of the entry fees will be paid back to the exhibitors. This may be publicizing a percentage, a breakdown of the entry fees, or any other similar means.

3.6. The OCCA requires that shows allow OCCA members to exhibit at OCCA sanctioned shows in accordance with the divisions and age breaks as provided for by 2.3.A.

Exceptions will be made for the following shows; OJCA Summer Preview Show, Oklahoma State Fair; Tulsa State Fair; and the Oklahoma Youth Expo.

3.7. The OCCA requires that show managers require all exhibitors to show their own animals in the ring. The only exception being, if the member is injured and unable to physically lead the animal into the ring, but is in attendance at that particular event, or if the exhibitor has two or more animals in the same class. Final decision is subject to Executive Committee review. Adult assistance to Pre-Junior Miniature Steer and Heifer exhibitors is permissible.

3.8. The OCCA will not sanction any show which holds a calcutta or any other illegal activity in conjunction with its show.

3.9. OCCA sanctioned heifer shows must include all miniature and standard heifers up to but not more than 2 years of age on the day of the show. Exceptions: OJCA Summer Preview Show, Oklahoma State Fair, Tulsa State Fair, and the Oklahoma Youth Expo.

3.10. The OCCA will not be responsible for the formulation of or enforcement of any individual show rules. With the exception of requirements mentioned in this rulebook, these are the sole responsibility of the show management.

3.11. BREED CATEGORIES

3.11.A. For a show to be approved and points awarded, a steer or heifer show will be required to use the current official OCCA breed list. This list includes Pre-Junior Miniature Steer and Heifer classes only for pre-junior members aged 4-7 years old. Pre-Junior ages are to be determined as of April 1 of the current point year. Miniature steers and heifers exhibited by members 8 and older are to show in standard classes subject to minimum head to make a breed as stated by each show. See 3.12.H and 3.12.J. For example, a member that was 7 years of age on April 1, but turned 8 years of age at a later date during the point year, will continue to show as a Pre-Junior for the entire point year.

3.11.B. Shows not following the required breed format must obtain approval from the OCCA, prior to sanctioning of the show, and must publicize the format to be used on their flyer.

3.11.C. The show may place a required minimum number of head per breed; however, this minimum may not exceed five (5) head and the minimum must be stated on the show flyer.

3.11.D. Exceptions will be made for the following shows; OJCA Summer Preview Show, Oklahoma State Fair; Tulsa State Fair; and the Oklahoma Youth Expo.

3.11.E. The recognized OCCA breed categories for steers and heifers will change each point year. The current year's breed list will be based on participation in each breed from the previous point year. For a breed to be recognized as a sanctioned point's category with breed specific prizes at the year-end awards banquet the breed must meet the minimum participation requirements as stated in 3.11.G. If a breed does not meet this minimum requirement, exhibitors may exhibit said breed at OCCA sanctioned shows but will collect points in the AOB category. When a breed in the AOB category meets the minimum participation level to become a stand-alone sanctioned breed, the breed will be pulled out of the AOB category and recognized in the next point year as their own category.

3.11.F. The American category will act as an AOB category for all eared breeds or breeds with eared influence. When a breed in the American category meets the minimum participation level said breed will be pulled out of the American category and recognized in the next point year as a stand-alone sanctioned breed.

3.11.G. The minimum participation requirements for a breed to be recognized as its own category outside of the AOB or American categories are as follows: 3 members exhibiting for points within the breed in a minimum of 3 rings within a single point year. For clarification on the current "recognized breeds" contact the OCCA Show Sanctioning Manager.

3.11.H. Any breed not recognized as a breed category on the list below must be allowed to show at an OCCA sanctioned show either in its parent (purebred/percentage) breed or in the AOB category.

3.11.I. The OCCA requires that shows follow the guidelines of the parent breed association when showing percentage breeds. These breeds will be updated after the completion of each point year.

OCCA does not currently sanction Pee Wee showmanship for points or year-end showmanship awards.

3.13. SANCTIONING FEES

3.14. Sanctioning fees will be based on the number of entries that have been paid to the sanctioned show staff. The OCCA sanctioning fee will consist of $1.00 per entry, regardless of the exhibitor's OCCA membership status. The sanctioning fee will not exceed an amount of $300 for a sanctioned event. The sanctioning fee will be due to the OCCA Sanctioning Manager within 10 days from the end date of the show. If an OCCA board member is present at the sanctioned event, the OCCA may collect the sanctioning fee at the conclusion of the entry collection.

3.15. Prospect and progress steers may be combined into one steer division or shown as separate divisions.

3.16. There is no charge for sanctioning a showmanship class. Showmanship may only be added to a show that allows all steers (prospect and progress) and heifers to show.

SECTION 4 GUIDELINES FOR SHOWS

6.2. GENERAL RULES REGARDING POINTS

6.2.A. Points will be accumulated at all sanctioned shows and recorded, individually, based on the number of animals that are actually shown in the class. The OCCA will not be responsible for "no shows" at the gate. Members will receive only the exact number of points as indicated in the points table in paragraph 6.1.A.

6.2.B. In all divisions, heifers and steers must be entered in the name of the individual OCCA member and must be shown by the member (see paragraph 3.7) in order for the points to be accumulated in his or her name.

6.2.C. To ensure proper tabulation of points, it is the exhibitor's responsibility to completely and legibly complete each class card and to see that show management accurately records the placing in each class. When a class contains mixed breeds, the exhibitor must note on the official class sheet the official breed that animal has been showing in during the current point year. In this case, points will be transferred to the official breed of the animal. If an animal is reclassified upon arrival at the show by the official classifier, no points will be awarded.

6.2.D. Once points have been recorded on an individual member within any one of the breed divisions, for steers or heifer division competition, those points are nontransferable to any other breed division. Incorrect breed information is the fault of the exhibitor and the OCCA will assume no responsibility therefore, recorded results will not be changed.

6.2.E. Only the top two steers and or heifers of any one owner exhibited, per show, per member, will count toward points standings in breed and top ten point standings.

6.2.F. If a member is found to be showing the same steer or heifer in two or more breeds, the board of directors will review and act upon such situations on a case by case basis. With potential action including loss of points earned and in some cases the member could forfeit all points for the entire year or become ineligible to compete in the point system for the balance of the current year.

- 6.2.F. Exception 1: If due to a show having a minimum number to have a breed, and the member is forced to show in an AOB division, the member must note on the official class sheet the steer or heifer's breed and the points will be transferred to the official breed of the animal via the member following the procedure set out in 6.2.H.
- 6.2.F. Exception 2: If a member must show in an appendix or percentage breed class the member must note on the official class sheet the steer or heifer's breed and the points will be transferred to the official breed of the animal via the member following the procedure set out in 6.2.H.

6.2.G. Anytime a member violates a rule, the following action will be taken: the board of directors will review and act upon such situations on a case by case basis. With potential action including loss of points earned and in some cases the member could forfeit all points for the entire year or become ineligible to compete in the point system for the balance of the current year.

6.2.H. All protests, corrections, questions, or any other issues related to points resolution must be submitted in writing to the OCCA office within 30 days of publication of points on the OCCA website. After 30 days of publication of points, points will remain as awarded and published.

6.2.I. For the Oklahoma Youth Expo only, all protests, corrections, questions, or any other issues related to Oklahoma Youth Expo points resolution must be submitted in writing to the OCCA office within 10 days of publication of Oklahoma Youth Expo points on the OCCA website. After 10 days of publication of Oklahoma Youth Expo points, Oklahoma Youth Expo points will remain as awarded and published.

6.3. HEIFER RULES

6.3.A. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to classify his or her heifer at the heifer's first competition. All heifers must be in the name of the exhibitor and meet all breed association guidelines. It will be the responsibility of all exhibitors to know their animals' eligibility within their respective breed associations. The heifer's first competition will designate the breed division for the entire year in which points can be awarded. See paragraph 6.2.F. for additional information.

6.3.B. In the heifer division, individual members may only be awarded points by exhibiting heifers that are owned by said exhibitor. "Loaned out" heifers may not be used to accumulate points. Registered heifers must be registered in the name of the exhibitors; commercial heifers must be owned by the exhibitor as listed on an official bill of sale. Exhibitors have ninety (90) days from the date of sale to obtain official registration papers for registered heifers.

6.3.C. Participants in the OCCA heifer division program may exhibit registered or non-registered commercial breeding heifers in accordance with all other rules in section 6.

6.3.D. Pre-junior members may exhibit miniature heifers earning points to be tracked in the Pre-Junior Miniature Heifer Division.

6.4. Bred and Owned Heifer Rules

6.4.A. Members collecting points in the Bred & Owned heifer division will be able to collect points on a maximum of two B&O heifers per show. These two heifers do not have to be the same two heifers used for earning points towards regular breed points and overall heifer awards at any given show.

6.4.B. It is the member's responsibility to ensure the official class sheets note their Bred & Owned heifers, when possible.

6.4.C. It is the member's responsibility to ensure their B&O points are accurately recorded as stated in section 6.2.H of the OCCA Rulebook.

6.5. STEER RULES
